Mr. Terrence Woldorf Joins DYMAX Corporation's Sales and Marketing Team

DYMAX Corporation, world-leading manufacturer of advanced light-curing adhesives, coatings, and curing equipment, is pleased to announce the addition of Terry Woldorf to the Sales and Marketing Team. As Chief Growth Officer/Sr. Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing, Mr. Woldorf will focus on developing, implementing and monitoring programs to ensure fulfillment of customer and DYMAX expectations for adhesives and curing equipment in the marketplace. He will be responsible for overseeing the Americas' Sales Team, Market Segment Managers, Light-Curing Equipment, Marketing Communications, Customer Service and Support Teams.

Following receipt of his bachelor's degree in marketing from The Ohio State University, Mr. Woldorf moved to New England and began a career with EG&G AluTech Corporation, a manufacturer of custom-engineered products for the electronics industry. In the early 1990's he transitioned to the fluid management field with a move to EFD, Inc., a Nordson Company, as a part of the global management team. Mr. Woldorf's experience includes global sales and marketing management, corporate development, product development and extensive work with manufacturers in life science, automotive, electronic, aerospace, metal forming and optical markets around the world.
