DYMAX Hosts Asian International Partner Outreach Program

DYMAX Corporation, an ISO 9001 certified, international manufacturer of solvent-free, environmentally friendly adhesives and light-curing equipment, hosted an International Partner Outreach Program (IPOP) in Shenzhen, China, in March.

The conference offered DYMAX sales partners the opportunity to participate in training and to exchange ideas and experiences on light-cure technology. Over 40 attendees from DYMAX-Asia and its Asian sales partners participated in conference workshops on light-curable materials, light-curing equipment, and their applications in electronic, medical, and industrial assembly and manufacturing segments. The workshops included demonstrations, case studies, hands-on scenarios, and videos, and were conducted in both English and Mandarin.
