

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Corinne Rebillard
Marketing Projects Specialist
DYMAX Corporation
(860) 482-1010
crebillard@dymax.com

DYMAX Sponsors Susan B. Anthony Project Authors' Luncheon

Torrington, Connecticut – December 22, 2011.... DYMAX Corporation recently co-sponsored the Susan B. Anthony Authors' Luncheon at the Torrington Country Club in Goshen, CT. The luncheon was a fundraising event for the Susan B. Anthony Project, a non-profit agency which provides domestic violence services, sexual assault crisis services, and other support for women and children in northwestern Connecticut.

The luncheon featured Anne Garrels as moderator. Anne, an NPR senior foreign correspondent for more than 20 years, is the author of Naked in Baghdad. She was one of the 16 American journalists who remained in Bagdad and reported live during the 2001 Iraq War. Also featured were Christopher Little, freelance photographer and author of Fallingwater, Gully Wells, author of The House in France, and Dorothy Wickenden, author of Nothing Daunted. For more information about this fundraiser or the Susan B. Anthony project, visit www.sbaproject.org.

For additional information, visit www.dymax.com or contact DYMAX Applications Engineering at info@dymax.com or 860-482-1010. DYMAX Corporation develops innovative adhesives, coating, dispensing, and light-curing systems for applications in a wide range of markets. Major markets include aerospace, appliance, automotive, electronics, industrial, medical device, and metal finishing.